THE ART OF DR. SEUSS AND SHOWS:

The gallery's special niche is that they are one of 30 art galleries, and one of 15 in the United States, licensed to sell and carry the Art of Dr. Seuss.

Also, the gallery often has Dr. Seuss art shows as well:

Bronze Sculpture Tribute Collection, featuring the first bronze sculptures created by artist Leo Rijn, in 2006.

2007 marked the 50th Anniversary of the "The Cat in the Hat," featuring a life size drawing of the cat known as "Ted's Cat" which hung in Dr. Seuss' studio in California.

In 2010, part of the gallery's Dr. Seuss collection was used at the Breman Jewish Museum for their exhibit of "Dr. Seuss Goes to War...and More!"

In 2012, the gallery was one of the hosting galleries for the 3rd annual Dr. Seuss Oh, the Places You'll Go! Scholarship Art Exhibition. This exhibit featured 139 local and south-east U.S. contestants that were high school seniors. The winner receives $10,000 towards a post-secondary college education.

Every year the gallery has an Annual Dr. Seuss Holiday Show which is usually on the first weekend in December.

FRAMING AND ART CONSULTATIONS:

Finally, the gallery also provides services and framing. The gallery has developed a relationship with hundreds of artists to insure that their clientele's needs are met for both home and office art purchases, and framing.

The gallery provides in-house art consultation for assessment, recommendations, planning, and budgeting to see that the desired art is acquired for their client's needs.

The work that the gallery gets for their clients are original paintings, limited edition prints, photographs, sculptures, glass, and other works of art.

Once the art is acquired, the gallery will custom frame, light, deliver, and install the artwork.
